

KA ULU ANA: "SECURING OUR FUTURE"
THE FOOD
RESILIENCE PROJECT

When: Saturday, February 6, 2010
10:00am - 3:00pm

$5 includes chili & rice bowl, along with samplings from the
"Chicken Wok-Out" and "Best Salad Dressing" contests, serving at 12:00pm

Where: Kohala Intergenerational Center; Located in the C.O.H. P&R Kamehameha Park in North Kohala

Chicken Wok-Out!

5 teams, including Mayor "Billy" Kenoi along with other public figures & chefs share local style chicken recipes.

Team 1
Mayor "Billy" Kenoi &
David Fuertes

Team 2
Sen. Russel Kokubon &
Sen. Dwight Takamine

Team 3
Rep. Clift Tsuji &
Rep. Jerry Chang

Team 4
Councilman
Dennis "Fresh" Onishi &
David Shiigi

Team 5
Gov. Linda Lingle's Chef,
Chef Alan Awana &
Kaleo Iwasaki of PIDF

Best Salad Dressing Contest

If you have the best salad dressing in town, register by January 30 to participate in this challenge. Call Erika at 884-5838

Also come out to see Agriculture Demonstrations/Displays

- Hawaiian saddle-making • Taro farming • Natural Farming Practices
- USDA, University of Hawaii • U.S. Census Informational Booth

Produce and Live Broiler Chickens Sale

*Veggies and chickens were grown and raised by the students of the Ka Hana No'eau Mentorship Programs;
Animal Husbandry and Sustainable Gardening*

FREE Entertainment!

Sponsored By:

21st Century
Community
Learning Center Grant